Travelling in Queensland is simple. Whether you're looking for air travel, a helicopter, relaxing train ride or hire cars and transfer; you'll find plenty of options.

By Air

Queensland has three international airports located Brisbane, Cairns and the Gold Coast. They are serviced by a number of airlines from all over the world.

Once in Australia, Qantas, VirginBlue, Jetstar and a number of smaller regional carriers such as Qantas link will get you around.

With international airports in Brisbane and Cairns plus many regional and island airports, flying around Queensland couldn't be easier.

By Sea

Arriving in Queensland by sea is a memorable experience. There are several ports and island anchorages dotting the coastline, visited by a number of international cruise lines. Once arrived, ferry and boat Services provide you with hassle-free and picturesque mode of getting around.

Whether you're connecting between the mainland and islands or just taking a cruise, you can relax during the journey, enjoy a drink and take in the views from the deck.

Many services offer state of the art catamarans or old-time paddle steamers. Some even allow you to take your car with drive-on and drive-off convenience.

You'll find ferry and charter operators in the transport sections of this book.

By Rail

For a unique travel experience, why not embark on a rail journey around Queensland. Travel in style on one of the modern trains or go back in time on one of the old rattlers.

You'll find rail operators in the rail section of this book.

Self-Drive

Hire companies are plentiful and most accommodating when trying to find that perfect vehicle to get you around on your holiday.

Whether it's a car, 4WD, motorhome or motorbike, make sure you slip off the main road and discover all that's on offer for a memorable road trip.

For information about hire companies, to find an itinerary with suggested stop-over's go to the self drive section of this publication.
