I joined TQ in 2006 as Marketing Manager China and have enjoyed my life at TQ everyday because I have the chance to travel to many cities in China and meet millions of people in different places. I have since been promoted to Regional Marketing Manager Greater China, and have enjoyed my life even more because I now travel to not only cities in China mainland but Hong Kong and Taiwan as well.

To do things in different ways and being part of the Best Job in the World campaign!

What are some of the challenges you have faced along the way?

In my role balancing work and life can be challenging – making the most of the time with my family, especially my young son, when I am travelling so much is important to me.
